

Dr. Sun Yat Sen has ingeniously expressed his unwavering love for Madam Soong Ching Ling and their marriage through a poem that he wrote for her:

“精诚无间同忧乐，
笃爱有缘共死生。”

Love & Revolution

Madam Soong Ching Ling,
Wife of Dr. Sun Yat Sen Special Exhibition

7 March – 7 September 2014

INTRODUCTION

The Love & Revolution special exhibition showcases the contributions of Madam Soong Ching Ling towards the success of the revolution and transformation of China towards a republic. Madam Soong married Dr. Sun in 1915, thereafter; she devoted her life to the cause of democratic revolution and the development of a modern China. In her lifetime, Madam Soong also paid close attention to women's and children's welfare.

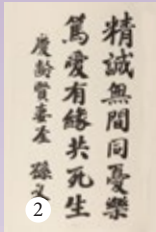

The exhibition is also Sun Yat Sen Nanyang Memorial Hall's maiden collaboration with the Soong Ching Ling Memorial Residence in Shanghai. Over 134 artefacts ranging from photographs to personal belongings of Dr. Sun and Madam Soong are displayed in this special exhibition, showcasing the life journey of Madam Soong and highlighting her experiences and involvement in the major milestones in the history of China.
