PLANET OR PLASTIC?

Exhibition | Chargeable
Basement 2 Galleries
12 Sep 2020 - 28 Mar 2021

Learn about the global plastic pollution crisis through more than 70 powerful photographs and videos in an exhibition by National Geographic.

From the Arctic to the Antarctic, plastic waste is everywhere. Planet or Plastic?, ArtScience Museum's first exhibition to launch since re-opening after Singapore's circuit-breaker, shines a spotlight on the fragility of the natural environment as a result of the global plastic waste crisis. The exhibition endeavours to raise awareness of society's dependence on plastic by visually depicting the crisis and highlighting the innovative individuals and communities who are working on solutions to this urgent problem.

MAKE YOUR OWN TUT: DROP-IN SESSIONS

Workshop | Free

Friday, 27 Nov 2020 | 10 - 11am, 11.30am - 12.30pm, 3 - 4pm, 4.30 - 5.30pm

For children aged 5 and above

A hands-on workshop that encourages young visitors to create their own version of everybody's favourite sea turtle, Tut. They will get creative and explore ways to upcycle discarded materials by giving them a new life in this craft session. At the end of the workshop, children will bring their turtle home with them and continue to spread the message of change.

Limited slots available. Online pre-booking of tickets is required. Pre-book a slot here.

WOMEN OF ART AND SCIENCE SEASON

7 Nov 2020 - 27 Nov 2020

Women of Art and Science is a series of online and in-person programs including: a performance, a film series, virtual tour and much more celebrating some of the wonder women of art and science, such as: Ruth Asawa, Hilma af Klint, Zaha Hadid and more! At ArtScience Museum, we proudly stand on the shoulders of giantesses.

Often women are referred to by their proximity to men, such as; 'behind every man', 'mother of' or 'wife of'. We are stopping that now. Join us to learn about some of the grittiest, strongest and trailblazing figures in art and science. These women defied expectations, genres and stomped over the idea of the patriarchal genius.

ARTSCIENCE ON SCREEN: NEW WAYS OF SEEING

Film Screening | Free

Expression Gallery, Level 4

7 Nov 2020 - 27 Nov 2020

This November, ArtScience on Screen spotlights three female artists - Ruth Asawa, Anna Campbell Bliss and Hilma af Klint, who defied categories of gender and genre in their artistic practice. Exploring the fields of art, science, mathematics and technology, these women continued to produce a prolific body of work in an industry dominated by the idea of a male "genius".

Their stories serve as a reminder to the grit and indomitable creative spirit of women whose influence have been erased, forgotten or gone unrecognised, demanding a rewrite of the histories we have come to know.

CLIMATE CONVERSATIONS WITH MANDY BARKER

Online Talk | Free

Thursday, 26 Nov 2020 | 5 - 6pm

Photographer and National Geographic Explorer Mandy Barker, whose work involving marine plastic debris has received global recognition, will take us through her photographic work from the past decade and share how she has been working alongside marine scientists to transform data on ocean plastics into arresting collages of pollution. She will also be showing her most recent work from the Henderson Island Plastic Pollution Expedition.

Climate Conversations brings together climate scientists and ecologists in a programme of talks that spotlights some of the most profound stories from the frontlines of conservation and climate innovation.

Register for the talk here.

VIRTUAL TOUR: WOMEN OF STEAM

Virtual Tour | Free

Friday, 27 Nov 2020

Throughout history, women have made huge contributions in the fields of Science, Technology, Engineering, Arts and Mathematics (STEAM). Find out more with Marilia as we look at some powerful women whose works had been previously exhibited in the museum. Be inspired to make the littlest change and chase your dreams as we recognise the work of these women.

ABCs OF MIGHTY MEDITATING

Online Activities | Free

Friday, 4 Dec 2020 | 5 - 6pm

Do you feel like a ship lost at sea, with your sails being tugged and torn by the changing winds? Join Josephine to learn about meditation, a tool used for thousands of years to quiet the storms in your mind and build an anchor to weather the turbulent tides now and in the future.

Amongst the many uncertainties in the current hectic society, it is always important to find a little joy, laughter and that bit of sparkle in our eyes. Art of Being Calm is a new programme that focuses on the ABCs of finding serenity. Join us for a series of hands-on activities and engaging discussions to explore how art tools can help us to be at peace with ourselves!

Register for the session here.

CHILDREN'S SEASON @ ACM: BETTER TOGETHER

21 Nov 2020 - 13 Dec 2020

School is out! Let's discover and create together with family and friends at ACM. We dedicate this Children's Season to reflecting on the values that have helped us through the pandemic and the ways we stay connected with our loved ones. To make our programmes more accessible, we now offer both online and self-guided activities at the museum.

PUTRI JUNJUNG BUIH

by June Ho

Saturday, 28 Nov 2020 | 11am

A long time ago, there was the Amuntal kingdom in South Kalimantan. The first king, Raja Patmaraga, longed to have a child of his own. After praying endlessly to the Almighty God, he miraculously found a baby held afloat by foams in a river. To his surprise, the baby was able to speak and requested several things from the king. What were the baby's requests? Could the king grant them?

Find out if they lived happily ever after and stay on to take part in a simple weaving activity at the end of the video.

LOK SI NAGA*

by Nek Selampit

Saturday, 5 Dec 2020 | 11am

Once upon a time in South Kalimantan, there lived a married couple who had a good and filial son. One day, the husband went to the river to fish, but instead of fish, he caught a large white egg. This was not any ordinary egg. What would happen if the family ate this extraordinary egg?

Find out what happens next in this exciting story of Lok Si Naga as Nek Selampit takes you on this magical journey.

MISTERI DI PASAR TERAPUNG (MYSTERY AT PASAR TERAPUNG)

Saturday, 12 Dec 2020 | 11am

Different kinds of kuihs and fruits disappeared mysteriously one day in Pasar Terapung (floating market). Turns out, they were all from boats that Mawi had visited, and people started accusing him of taking things without permission. But Mawi knows that he is not guilty and he decided to get to the bottom of things. Who do you think took the kuihs and fruits?

To find out, join us for this storytelling session and get a chance to see the artefacts related to the story, followed by a craft activity.

Presented in conjunction with our Doraemon's Time-Travelling Adventures in Singapore campaign and upcoming Home, Truly special exhibition, Children's Season at the National Museum 2020 explores the topic of change through both self-facilitated onsite activities and a range of online programmes.

Identify how the lifestyles of different generations in your family have changed using our My Family's Stories kit; find out how you can relax through our family mindfulness workshop and what are some other ways of coping with change; imagine a kinder society while participating in our Appreciation Campaign; and reflect o change while speaking with our artefact, a Setron television!

As 2020 draws to a close, we hope children and families can find inspiration in our artefacts' stories of resilience and innovation, and learn that Change is OK!

Visit the event page for the full list of programmes and resources.
