FOREWORD

The National Heritage Board (NHB), together with its museums, heritage institutions and divisions, have developed a wide range of exciting educational programmes coming your way in 2020!

These programmes have been curated to encourage active student participation and to instil in students a greater understanding and appreciation of Singapore's heritage. They are developed in partnership with key education partners such as Ministry of Education, Early Childhood Development Agency and other museum educators and partners.

As a result of the above partnerships, NHB's educational programmes are aligned with the teaching of Humanities, Social Studies, Character and Citizenship Education and 21st Century Competencies. In addition, as part of NHB's life cycle approach towards heritage education, our programmes cater to students at every stage of their academic journeys, from pre-school to primary school, secondary school to tertiary level.

At NHB, we believe that heritage education is important because it contributes to a better understanding of Singapore's history and plays a crucial role in strengthening students' sense of national identity and belonging. Through quality educational programmes, we hope to provide an engaging and interactive environment to inspire students to learn about our past, appreciate our present and embrace the future with confidence.

This booklet acts as a one-stop easy reference tool for educators, parents and students to explore the various educational programmes offered by NHB and our museums, heritage institutions and divisions across different age groups.

So sign up for our programmes and experience heritage up-close!

NATIONAL HERITAGE BOARD

The National Heritage Board (NHB) was formed on 1st August 1993. As the custodian of Singapore's heritage, NHB is responsible for telling the Singapore Story, sharing the Singaporean experience and imparting our Singapore spirit.

NHB's mission is to preserve and celebrate the shared heritage of our diverse communities, for the purpose of education, nation-building and cultural understanding. It manages the national museums and heritage institutions, and sets policies relating to heritage sites, national monuments and the national collection. Through the national collection, NHB curates heritage programmes and presents exhibitions to connect the past, present and future generations of Singaporeans. NHB is a statutory board under the Ministry of Culture, Community and Youth.

PLAN YOUR VISIT

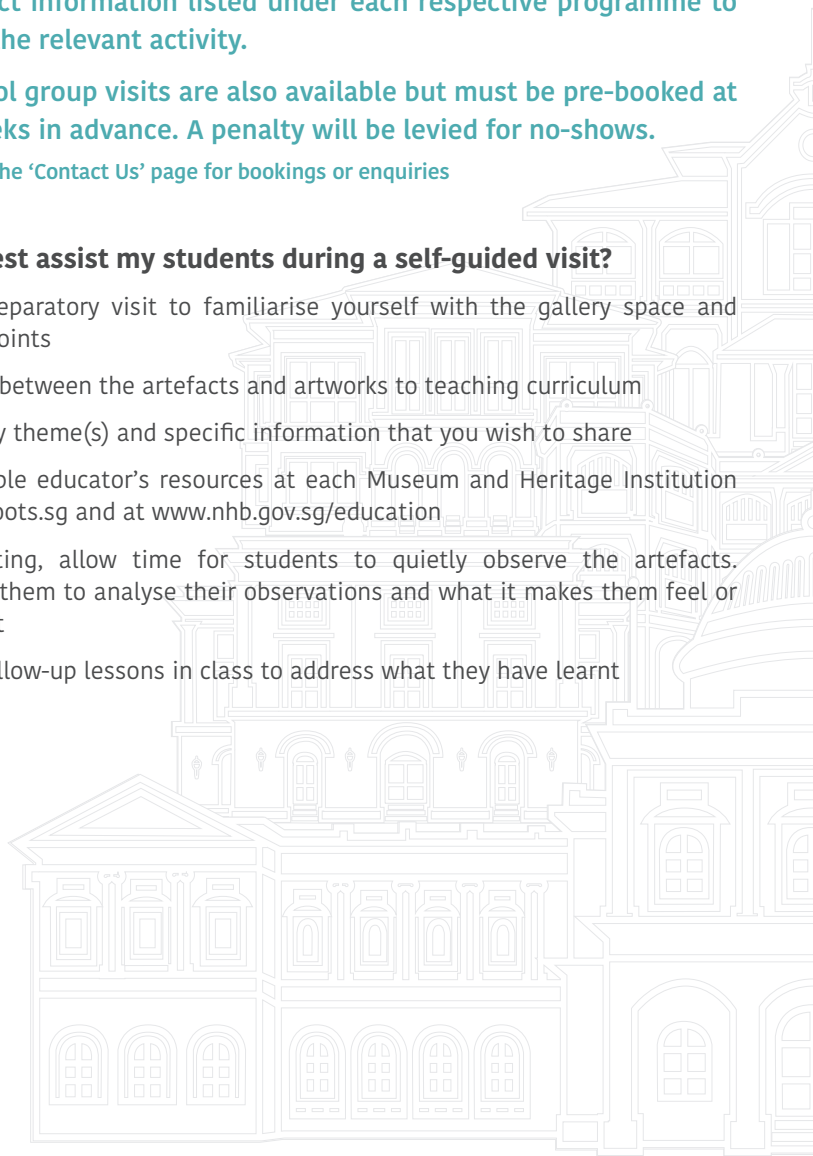

We aim to provide you and your group with the best museum experience, so please remember to book in advance before your visit. You may refer to the contact information listed under each respective programme to register for the relevant activity.

Guided school group visits are also available but must be pre-booked at least six weeks in advance. A penalty will be levied for no-shows.

Please refer to the 'Contact Us' page for bookings or enquiries

How can I best assist my students during a self-guided visit?

- ✎ Make a preparatory visit to familiarise yourself with the gallery space and alighting points
- ✎ Draw links between the artefacts and artworks to teaching curriculum
- ✎ Identify key theme(s) and specific information that you wish to share
- ✎ Use available educator's resources at each Museum and Heritage Institution website, Roots.sg and at www.nhb.gov.sg/education
- ✎ When visiting, allow time for students to quietly observe the artefacts. Encourage them to analyse their observations and what it makes them feel or think about
- ✎ Conduct follow-up lessons in class to address what they have learnt

MUSEUM ETIQUETTE

Please inform your students to observe the following etiquette so as to provide the best experience for all at the museums and heritage institutions.

A short video on museum etiquette is also available for viewing at <http://www.nhb.gov.sg/education/resources-for-families>

What is considered proper conduct in the museums?

- ✓ Be considerate to others by keeping voices low
- ✓ Do not lean on glass panels or use them to write on, as this may break the glass, tip the showcase or cause damage to the artefacts
- ✓ Use pencils and not pens when writing notes, as they may cause permanent marks or stains
- ✓ Help us preserve artefacts by not touching them, unless otherwise stated
- ✓ Eating or drinking in the galleries is strictly not permitted
- ✓ Flash photography is not allowed inside the galleries, as this might harm vulnerable materials such as paper due to accumulated exposure to strong lighting. Flash lights, for instance, can also cause coloured pigments to fade

Note: Copyright issues may apply even when photography is allowed in specific galleries

How can I maximise the benefits of a museum visit?

- Keep your voice low and listen attentively to the guide or docent
- Make close observations on the artefacts, paintings or works of art
- Try and think about how these artefacts relate to what you have learnt before
- Be inquisitive! Ask questions on any aspect of the exhibition or artefacts you wish to know about
- Don't be afraid to try the hands-on activities available

For students, do remember to conduct yourselves properly when walking individually or in groups within the galleries. Please discuss quietly even as you work together on your assignments.

The museum is a space for observing, thinking and quiet learning, and we hope to maintain and provide the best experience for all. See you at the museums!
