FLOWER POWER

When they arrived at Little India, they saw many shops selling traditional goods.

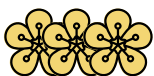

Several shops had colourful flower garlands hanging in front. Clara wondered what the colours of the flowers meant.

SRI SRINIVASA PERUMAL TEMPLE

It wasn't long before something else caught their attention — a tall structure with many idols!

"This place is always very lively during Thaipusam," said Hafiz.

What is a kavadi?

Connect the dots to find out!

This temple marks the starting point for male devotees, who will carry a kavadi and move to the Sri Thendayuthapani Temple during Thaipusam.

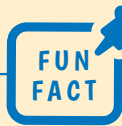

What should you do when you enter a place of worship?

I should .....

TEKKA CENTRE

After leaving the temple,
Harish's stomach gave a loud growl.
"I'm hungry," he said.
"Let's eat at Tekka Centre!"
exclaimed an equally hungry Clara.

The former Tekka Market was known as the Kandang Kerbau Market ("Buffalo Enclosure Market") because of the many cattle sheds in the area.

Trace Harish's route

to the correct meaning of "tekka".

INDIAN HERITAGE CENTRE

400+

After filling their stomachs, Hafiz spotted an iconic four-storey building at Campbell Lane.
"It's the Indian Heritage Centre!" said Harish.

The number of artefacts the centre has. Can you see them all?
