About your Senior Pen Pal

Senior's name: Tomy Senior's age: 62+

Senior's answer to your question:

Life back then in my primary school was different. Parents no book and no money to buy food. Drink lots of water in school to keep your stomach full. Go to bread shop to collect those burn bread skin and eat. Those days there is no way to get rid of those bugs. It is all over and live with them. Going to school with no money, we walk. Visiting friends, family members and relatives, if we have money, we take a public transport (bus).
