

The Things We Do, Old and New

Interactive Showcase

Policewoman

By: Seniors from NTUC Health Day Centre for Seniors (Dakota Crescent)

Imagine being a policewoman in the 1950s and having a uniform with pink buttons and shiny, black shoes! You'll also have a much taller hat than your colleagues!

"This new design of the policewoman's uniform is not too hot when worn, with shorter sleeves, shorts, and a a tall hat for the air to enter."

- Mdm Mary Yuen, 90 years old

The Things We Do, Old and New

Interactive Showcase

Spaceman

By: Children from Class K2E

Is this what the future would look like?
Hairstyles that double up as helmets and patriotic spacesuits? What a great look to travel through space in!

*"In the future, we would travel in space,
our drivers would be this spaceman."*

- Ee Jay, 6 years old

The Things We Do, Old and New

Interactive Showcase

Glasses Artist

By: Children from Class K2C

A glasses artist with clothes and an apron that reflect the love for her craft and bubbly personality. Even her glasses look whimsical and futuristic! They act like goggles that protect her eyes as well.

The Things We Do, Old and New

Interactive Showcase

Helper

By: Children from Class K2B

An all-rounder helper is going to need an all-rounder uniform. A pretty bow to soothe a crying baby, a special pouch to store anything she needs and non-slip shoes when she cleans the kitchen — perfect!

