Artefact Hunts!

Based on the Early Learning Resources

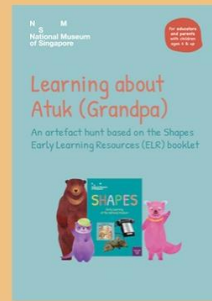

Join Dennis the Otter, Papa Sunbear and Mama Binturong on a self-facilitated story-based artefact hunt!

Choose from 5 stories – explore the galleries and solve riddles to discover little-known facts behind the mysterious artefacts. Look for the answers in their related ELR booklet!

A Trip to Popo (Grandma)'s House Theme: Alphabets

Learning about Atuk (Grandpa) Theme: Shapes

The Museum Counter Theme: Numbers

Dennis' Naughty Prank Theme: Opposites

Mama's Field Trip Memories Theme: Colours

For educators and parents with children ages 4 & up

Engage your children to draw similarities from objects seen at home or in school, while our characters introduce you to selected artefacts through simple stories.

Print out the selected Artefact Hunt and read the story and questions to the children during your visit to the galleries. Engage children in conversations and empower them to take the lead in searching for answers in the related ELR booklet!

Hint

Look at the word in bold! Which artefact in the Colours ELR booklet fits the description?

Look out for the hints to help you find the answers!

Flip to the map of the Voices of Singapore gallery (in red) in the Colours booklet for the location of the artefact!

Locate the artefacts on the map and spot them in the gallery!

Discussion questions are included to help engage your children to hone their observation and reflective skills!

Let's discuss!

Take a close look at this artefact in front of you.

- Where can you find the trapezium shape?
- What other shapes can you find on this table?
