October Theme: Architecture in Singapore

Which are some of our oldest buildings in Singapore? What are the stories behind their construction and design?

Join us for this tour as we explore Singapore's architecture through some of the long-standing places of worship and cultural sites. In conjunction with the museum's 135th anniversary, we will look at the museum's building which is among the oldest in Singapore.

This tour is conducted by the museum's Care Facilitators and seeks to enable seniors, persons with dementia and their care partners to share their stories and experiences while visiting our Singapore History Gallery (Level 1), and touring the NMS building.
