1. Memory Lane

Enter Memory Lane to view virtual exhibitions designed by past participants.

You may also stand in front of the screen to take a picture with your favourite design, or relax on the banquette seats or armchair while viewing the exhibition artworks.

Please be careful not to touch the screen as it is very fragile.

2. Music Booths

You are welcome to take a seat at one of the two (2) music booths and select familiar or favourite tunes from the past on the iPad.

If you are unable to find a song on the iPad, let us know by filling in the “Song Suggestion” physical form and drop it into the pink “Song Suggestion” box, or use the digital form by scanning the QR code on the box.

Feel free to pick up any of the handling objects in the shelves and be inspired to share your stories and memories about them with others in the booth. Remember to place them back after use.

3. Activity Area

You are welcome to take a seat at the Activity Area and enjoy conversations with your friends.

Food and drinks from the café are allowed in the Activity Area when there are no programmes. Do check out our Social Etiquette list at the entrances of the space.

There are handling objects and conversation starter guides featuring our National Collection that are located around the Reunion space. Feel free to pick them up for use, and engage in reminiscence conversations with others.

4. Quiet Room

This is the Quiet Room that is designed for any visitors who may require a calming environment to rest in, before resuming their activity in Reunion.

Only one (1) pair of visitor and his/her caregiver is allowed to use the room at any time.

5. Café Brera at Reunion

The café is located adjacent to the Reunion social space via the connecting door.

Round up your visit with some fresh bakes and wholesome food suitable for seniors at the café, over hearty conversations.

The café also serves up dysphagia-friendly food, which are suitable for people with swallowing difficulties.
