

EASTER SUNDAY @ SINGAPORE PHILATELIC MUSEUM

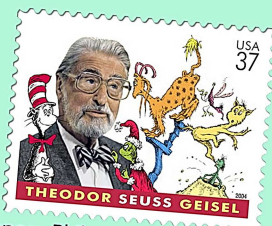

Sunday, 16 April 2017
10.00am - 7.00pm

Admission charges apply.
Free Admission for all Singaporeans and PRs
(Please produce valid identification for your free entry)

Pysanka Egg Demonstration

1.00pm - 4.00pm

See beautiful Ukrainian decorated eggs and get the opportunity to make your own! The traditional designs on the eggs tell stories of culture, folktales and heritage of Ukraine. Donations apply.

Singapore Philatelic Museum Collection

Green Eggs & Ham! by Centre Stage School of the Arts

2.30pm - 3.00pm

Join us as Centre Stage School of the Arts breathes new life into Dr Seuss' fabulous story "Green Eggs & Ham". Suitable for all ages.

Easter Craft

10.00am - 5.00pm

To celebrate both the Zodiac Year of the Rooster and Easter, make your own fun pop-up chicky craft! Suitable for all ages. Donations apply.

Fun Quiz

10.00am - 5.00pm

Visit our galleries and take part in the fun quiz for a sure-win prize. Learn stories behind these beautiful stamps as you go on an adventure around the museum.

Precious Eggs: Of Art, Beauty and Culture Exhibition

The exhibition showcases a collection of 148 precious eggs from the Liechtenstein National Museum. The egg's unique form and life-giving symbol have inspired artists and craftsmen, resulting in historical pieces like the Russian Imperial porcelain eggs, Fabergé egg pendants and other works using materials ranging from crystal to horn.

Stamps - A Window to the World
Singapore Philatelic Museum
23-B Coleman Street
Singapore 179807
www.spm.org.sg

