About SG50 Jubilee Weekend

To mark Singapore's 50 years of independence, 7 August 2015 has been declared a special SG50 public holiday. Singaporeans will be able to enjoy an extended Jubilee Weekend from 7th to 10th August, so as to commemorate this significant milestone in our nation's history.

The Jubilee Weekend is a special time for Singaporeans to spend with their family, friends and community, to celebrate SG50 in a meaningful way. A variety of programmes have been organised around the island, to reflect our journey as a nation, to celebrate what makes Singapore our home, and to strengthen our ties as one people.

For more details on the programmes over the Jubilee weekend, please visit <https://www.singapore50.sg>.

About National Heritage Board

The National Heritage Board (NHB) was formed on 1 August 1993. As the custodian of Singapore's heritage, NHB is responsible for telling the Singapore story, sharing the Singaporean experience and imparting our Singapore spirit. NHB's mission is to preserve and celebrate the shared heritage of our diverse communities, for the purpose of education, nation-building and cultural understanding. It manages the national museums and heritage institutions, and sets policies relating to heritage sites, monuments and the national collection. Through the national collection, NHB curates heritage programmes and presents exhibitions to connect the past, present and future generations of Singaporeans. NHB is now a statutory board under the Ministry of Culture, Community and Youth. Please visit www.nhb.gov.sg for more information.

7 LETTERS Screening (Embargoed until 20 July 2015, 2pm)

8 – 10 August

11am

Gallery Theatre

By donation. Tickets available on a first-come-first-served basis at the National Museum of Singapore front desk on 1 and 2 August from 10am to 6pm. Free seating.

Singapore's seven most illustrious directors have gathered their creative storytelling and filmmaking talents in a one-of-a-kind project celebrating Singapore's 50th year. 7 Letters represents seven heartfelt 'love letters' to Singapore, capturing each of the directors' personal and poignant connection with the place they call home. The seven stories tell of our heartland and its people through tales of lost love, identity, inter-generational familial bonds and tensions, unlikely neighbours, and even references to traditional folklore.

Boo Junfeng, Eric Khoo, K Rajagopal, Jack Neo, Tan Pin Pin, Royston Tan, and Kelvin Tong – all award-winning filmmakers and familiar names in Singapore's film industry – will present an emotive anthology showcasing the lives and stories of Singaporeans.

7 Letters is fully supported by Singapore Film Commission (SFC) and a Friend of National Museum of Singapore. It is the Opening Film at the iconic Capitol Theatre in July 2015 and will also be screened at the National Museum of Singapore over the National Day Jubilee Weekend.

Ticket donations go to:

- Alzheimer's Disease Association
- Children-At-Risk Empowerment Association
- Movement for the Intellectually Disabled of Singapore
- PERTAPIS Senior Citizens Fellowship Home
- Singapore Buddhist Lodge Welfare Foundation
