

Examples of Respectful and Disrespectful Use of the National Flag: Non-Attire

A. On Products

Use of the National Flag image on disposable items/materials
1	The National Flag image should not be used on items that are intended to be torn or thrown away (i.e., plastic packaging, paper napkins, trash bags).
Use of the National Flag image on items intended to be dirtied
1	The image of the National Flag should not be used on products (or on parts of products) that are intended to be dirtied (i.e., tablecloths, doormats, near vehicular exhaust pipes or tyres).
Other inappropriate uses of the National Flag image
1	Items used at funerals and related events.
2	As false endorsement of products/services.

B. Creative Designs

Use of the National Flag image with text
1	Words or graphics used together with the image of the National Flag should be placed below or beside the image rather than above or on the image itself. In particular, any graphics or text should not cover the key elements of the image (i.e., the crescent and five stars). Company XYZ Opening hours:xxxx Location:xxxxCompany XYZ Opening hours:xxxx Location:xxxx
Other designs incorporating the National Flag
1	The National Flag image or elements can be incorporated into other creative illustrations, but the depiction of the National Flag should not deviate greatly from the original design of the National Flag (e.g., changing the colour of the National Flag or depicting images of torn, broken or tattered National Flags). HAPPY NATIONAL DAYHAPPY NATIONAL DAY
